Moroni Besendorfer

I am a lifelong resident of Wasatch County, educated in county schools, with B.S. and M.A. degrees from BYU. I am a retired educator, having been a principal and teacher in county schools for 32 years, as well as a farmer and rancher.

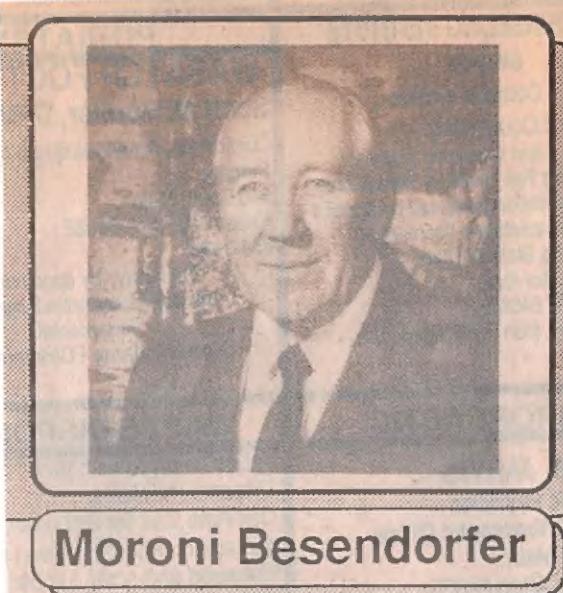

As a county commissioner for the past two years, I have tried to be fair and honest in my dealings, have upheld the laws, have not drained the taxpayers' pockets, have not sought personal gain, and have been dedicated, hard working, and loyal to the people of Wasatch County.

Wasatch County is facing many difficult issues and problems which should concern all citizens. No one individual has the foresight and knowledge to solve all the issues. I have tried to be broadminded, to look at all sides in order to make
